*Accident Only Disability Income
Insurance Can Help You keep it going!*

The paycheck you earn helps you build the life you want for your family. However, life can put you in a spin if you suddenly lose your income because of an injury. The thought of losing ground can be scary. Suddenly, the future seems unpredictable; the calendar changes and immediate concerns are the focus. Recovery becomes the “new normal.”

At a time like this, it can make all the difference to know the bills may be paid; that you have a way to keep it going. That's what Accident Only Disability Income insurance can help you do.

What is Accident Only Disability Income Insurance?

If you are injured in an accident and can't work, Accident Only Disability Income insurance replaces a portion of your income during the time you are out of work. The monthly benefits you receive can help protect your home since a mortgage or rent payment is often a significant monthly expense.

Typically the least expensive of disability insurance options, Accident Only disability insurance functions like many other insurance policies in that you pay a set amount at regular intervals and in exchange, you receive benefits if you use your policy. Some people think of disability income insurance as "paycheck protection."

Things to Consider When Thinking about Your Accident Only Disability Income Coverage

If you're like most people, you probably haven't thought much about disability, loss of income and its financial impact. Your income is your most valuable asset. It helps pay bills, living expenses, and other insurance. It's spent on recreation, vacations, and education. It helps build up savings and contributes to retirement plans. And, it's used for so many things in between!

When determining how much income protection you may need, consider these questions:

- 1) What monthly living expenses and financial obligations need to be covered?
- 2) Other than your savings, what other sources of income can you count on to meet monthly living expenses?
- 3) If you were out of work because of an injury, what would your family have to give up?

Your lifestyle, financial plans, everything you work for depends on your ability to earn an income. What would you do if you lost your income – your ability to work – because of an injury?

The Basics of Your Accident-Only Disability Income Policy

MAXIMUM MONTHLY BENEFIT: This is the maximum dollar amount your policy will pay each month based on eligibility. The maximum monthly benefit amount for accident-only disability insurance coverage is $5,000. Ask yourself, "How much coverage will I need?" Consider factors like your mortgage or rent, living expenses and other debts, your current income and any available resources such as savings.

ELIMINATION PERIOD:* Your policy has a waiting period before the policy benefits begin. Once the elimination period has been satisfied, benefits are paid to you each month. Your options include: 0, 7, 14, 30, 60, or 90 days. Ask yourself, "How long will I be able to manage my expenses until benefits begin?" Take a realistic look at your monthly bills, what resources might help you meet those obligations and for how long.

BENEFIT PERIOD:* You can choose the duration of your benefit period. Your options include: 3, 6, 12 and 24 months. Ask yourself, "How long will I want coverage?" Disability benefits can be paid to you for a period of just a few months or up to two years.

Elimination and Benefit Periods may not be available in all states and may vary by state. The policy's Outline of Coverage provides full details on any limitations and exclusions.*
